+ Community Engagement

A three day orientation is held at the beginning of the fall semester for study abroad students

Optional excursions (varying in price and length) are available for students at an additional cost that can be paid directly to CIEF

+ Housing

Student
Housing

Students are able to live near campus in the International Student Residence (RIE). RIE provides single rooms with communal bathrooms, and a shared kitchen space on each floor. Bed linens, towels, and kitchen supplies are not supplied for students.

Homestay

CIEF will assist students in connecting with available homestay families, but students will be responsible for finalizing arrangements (including payment) with their homestay family. Homestays typically include a single room with two meals per day.
