

Greek Mythology

This course is a survey of Greek mythology and its influence upon all aspects of Greek society and culture, especially its importance in the Greek's understanding of the world around them. Special emphasis is placed upon the role of myth in literature through the reading of both classical and contemporary works. By the end of the course, students will be able to identify the individual Greek gods and goddesses and their role within the Olympic Pantheon. Travel to Greece and Italy will be an integral part of the course.

Program Details

May 16-27, 2019

Greece and Italy

Course Credit: ENG 311

$3,615

Program Highlights

Climb the Acropolis to view the Parthenon

Explore the island of Mykonos

Take a guided tour of Vatican City and ancient Rome

For more information, contact Professor Ann Jordan

jordana@winthrop.edu

