

Dunedin School of Art-Otago Polytechnic Dunedin, New Zealand

Fine Arts, Sculpture, Ceramics, and Jewelry/Metals

The one or two semester study abroad program accentuates the art foundation built at Winthrop, and provides students a unique environment in New Zealand for exploring new techniques and concepts. Students may take courses in eight studio disciplines: ceramics, electronic arts, jewelry and metalsmithing, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture, and textiles. A semester at Otago Polytechnic will further develop an artist's technical, academic and personal skills.

Location Facts

Dunedin is a charming city with a vibrant and thriving arts scene and café culture. There are numerous art galleries and museums to accompany classroom learning and provide artistic inspiration of all sorts. Located on the South East coast of the South Island, Dunedin is a city nestled in tree-clad hills at the head of a spectacular harbor, with numerous bays and stunning beaches surrounding the city. Dunedin is the main center of, and the gateway to, the beautiful and touristy Otago region. The population here is young and vibrant, with 25,000 students comprising 10% of the total population. Dunedin is New Zealand's largest city by area and arguably the most spectacular in terms of contrasting landscapes and comfortable climate.

Housing and Meals: Students have a few housing options:

Apartments (flatting) - Students live in rented apartments or houses reasonably close to campus. Generally, students share an apartment, which includes single or double bedrooms, a bathroom, common living area and kitchen. Many studio apartments come with basic provisions, but other apartments may require purchasing furniture or other supplies. Students tend to cook for themselves.

Residence Halls (also called Supervised Accommodation) – Suite-style residences or single or double rooms. Most residence halls have communal eating areas and a variety of recreational and study facilities. Please note- this housing option is not always available to study abroad students, as residence halls fill up quickly with local students. If you are interested in this option, you may be put on a waiting list and it's possible that you will live with a homestay family during the waiting period.

Homestays - Students live in their own room and become part of a New Zealand family. The family provides two daily home-cooked meals, breakfast and dinner. Most homestay placements are within a short commute to the OP campus.
