

Ming Chuan University Taipei or Taoyuan, Taiwan

The academic year or one-semester exchange program at Ming Chuan University (MCU) is designed to expose students to Taiwanese people and their culture. The university is for students who are interested in professional studies (taught in English) and the Mandarin language. Ming Chuan has two campuses, one in the capital city of Taipei and one about 40 minutes from Taipei in Taoyuan. The student's course of study will determine at which campus they study.

Semester Dates

Fall: mid-September - mid January
Spring: mid-February - end June

Application Deadlines

Oct 1 for Spring study
Mar 1 for Full Academic Year study

Location Facts

Taoyuan is a high-tech, modernized city with tons of museums and temples to visit, as well as an active nightlife and delicious selection of traditional Asian food. The lifestyle is described as casual with a pleasant climate all year round. Ming Chuan's Taoyuan campus is a short 40 minute commute to Taipei City.

Taipei is a bustling capital city full of life and activity. It is the political, economic, and cultural center of Taiwan. Taipei has one of the best public transportation systems in the world, making it very easy for a visitor to explore. Hot springs, hiking, festivals and parks are things the Taiwanese and visitors alike enjoy.
