

Europa-Universität Flensburg Flensburg, Germany

Fall semester: Late September-mid February

Spring semester: Early April-late July

*Students may only apply for the full academic year or spring semesters due to the academic calendar

Language of Instruction: English and German

Minimum GPA: 2.5

Language requirement: GERM 101 and 102

More information can be found at <https://www.uni-flensburg.de/en/international/>

Charged to WingSpan:

$200 Application Fee

$325 Participation Fee

Winthrop Tuition

Additional Costs*:

$1,200 Housing

$1,100 Meals

$150 Books & School Supplies

$1,500 Roundtrip Airfare

$145 U.S. Passport

$1,500 Personal Spending
Money

$40/
month International Health
Insurance

$75 Residency Permit

*These amounts are estimates and are subject to change depending on exchange rates

+ Course Examples

Intermediate and Advanced German

New Trends in Media Business and Cultural Management

International Economics

Philosophy

European Contemporary History

Art and Media

+ Cultural Engagement

Study Buddy Programme that pairs study abroad students with local German students to adjust to life in Flensburg.

International tutors are available to help with coursework.

The International Office regularly schedules events and trips to engage study abroad students with each other as well as the local community.

+ Housing

Residence Halls

Students will live in one of two residence halls on campus. One residence hall is located on campus, and the other is 6kms from campus with public transportation available. Each residence hall has shared kitchens and cooking facilities for students.

Housing Stipend

Qualified Winthrop students may be eligible for a monthly stipend from Europe-Universität Flensburg to assist with housing costs. Stipends can range between 350-700 Euros, and students should inquire directly to the international office in Flensburg.